■ 'STARDUST' DESK

by Marconato & Zappa

Designed by Marconato & Zappa, an interior design and architect practice based in Como, in northern Italy, the 'Stardust' desk forms part of a bedroom set that also includes a bed, a side table and a series of poufs. Supported by a metal structure, which is available in either a gold or antique finish, the desk features a slim wooden top and two drawers and is lined with a luxurious leather, available in a variety of shades. The same leather finish is used to line the drawers and the recessed tray on the desktop, making the 'Stardust' a sophisticated yet functional marvel.
